

COLLEGE ENGLISH

WEEK 9 AGENDA:

Adjectives

Classifications of Adjectives

Order of Adjectives

Degrees of Comparison

Adjective Phrases

Objectives:

1. Define adjective and its classifications.
2. Identify and apply the correct sequence of adjectives before a noun in constructing sentences.
3. Differentiate among the positive, comparative, and superlative degrees of adjectives and use them correctly in sentences.
4. Recognize adjective phrases in sentences and construct their own sentences using adjective phrases to describe nouns.

Adjective

An adjective is a word that describes or modifies a noun or pronoun. It gives more information about what kind, which one, or how many.

Examples:

The busy students prepared for their exams.

She bought a red umbrella for the rainy season.

The professor gave a challenging assignment.

We enjoyed a delicious Filipino meal.

He is a kind classmate who always helps others.

Classifications of Adjectives

Attributive Adjectives

adjectives that precede the noun or pronoun it modifies

Examples:

square table

elliptical road

erogenous zones

Predicative Adjectives

adjectives that follow a linking verb and serve as a subjective complement

Examples:

The table is square.

The road is elliptical.

Simple Adjectives

adjectives composed of only one word

Examples: hard, friendly, bold, well, worthy

Compound Adjectives

adjectives composed of two or more words

Examples: hard-working, environment-friendly, noteworthy, boldfaced, good-looking

Regular Adjectives

adjectives that form their comparative and superlative forms by adding -er/more and -est/ most to the base form

Examples:

quick-quicker-quickest

full-fuller-fullest stable-more stable-most stable

Irregular Adjectives

adjectives that do not follow the usual rules of forming the comparative and superlative degrees

Instead of simply adding -er or -est, or using more and most, their forms completely change.

Irregular Adjectives

Positive	Comparative	Superlative
bad/ill	worse	worst
far (distance)	farther	farthest
far (time)	further	furthest
good	better	best little	less	least much	more	most well	better	best

Identify the adjective and its classification in each sentence.

1. The taller student presented the report confidently.
2. This is the best solution to our classroom problem.
3. We enjoyed a bittersweet ending to the Filipino film.
4. The teacher checked the colorful projects on her desk.
5. He has the least interest in attending the seminar.

Order of Adjectives

The order of adjectives refers to the correct sequence in which multiple adjectives are arranged before a noun. Native English speakers naturally follow this pattern, but learners need to study it to sound more natural.

General Rule

ANOSASCOMP

- Article/Determiner (a, an, the, my, some)
- Number (one, two, several)
- Opinion (beautiful, delicious, amazing)
- Size (small, large, tall)
- Age (new, old, young)
- Shape (round, square, thin)
- Color (red, blue, green)
- Origin (Filipino, Japanese, American)
- Material (wooden, plastic, gold)
- Purpose (sleeping [bag], running [shoes])

Examples:

1. She bought two beautiful small old round red Filipino wooden dining table.
2. He wore an elegant long black Italian leather jacket.
3. She adopted three adorable small young fluffy white Japanese stray cats.

Rearrange the adjectives in the correct order before the noun.

1. He bought (wooden, small, Filipino, round, two, brown, beautiful) tables.
2. She carried (three, Italian, leather, stylish, black) bags.
3. We ate (delicious, ripe, two, yellow, sweet, Guimaras) mangoes.
4. The artist painted (colorful, old, square, five, Spanish, huge) windows.
5. They stayed in (comfortable, modern, new, two, large) hotel rooms.

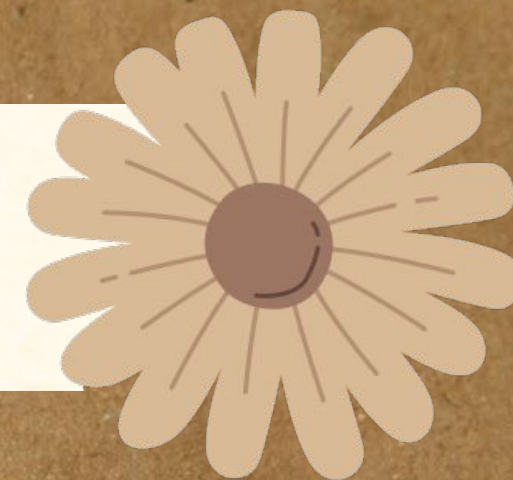

Degrees of Comparison

Adjectives change their form to show different levels of comparison: positive, comparative, and superlative.

Degrees of Comparison

Positive Degree

describes a quality (no comparison)

Comparative Degree

compares two things, often using -er or more

Superlative Degree

compares more than two things, showing the highest degree

Positive Degree Examples:

This classroom is bright.

The halo-halo is sweet.

Our professor is kind.

That jeepney is colorful.

The library is quiet.

Comparative Degree Examples:

This classroom is brighter than the one next door.

The halo-halo is sweeter than the leche flan.

Our professor is kinder than the substitute teacher.

The jeepney is more colorful than the tricycle.

The library is quieter than the cafeteria.

Superlative Degree Examples:

This is the brightest classroom in the building.

Halo-halo is the sweetest Filipino dessert I've ever tasted.

Among all the teachers, our professor is the kindest.

That jeepney is the most colorful on the street.

The library is the quietest place in the campus.

Choose the correct adjective form to complete each sentence.

1. This task is _____ (difficult, more difficult, most difficult) than the last one.
2. Among all the athletes, he is the _____ (fast, faster, fastest).
3. The lecture today is _____ (interesting, more interesting, most interesting) than yesterday's.
4. Our library is _____ (quiet, quieter, quietest) than the student lounge.
5. She delivered the _____ (good, better, best) presentation in class.

Adjective Phrase

a group of words (not just a single adjective) that describes a noun or pronoun;

The head word is usually an adjective.

Adjective Phrase

tells what kind, which one, or how many about the noun

Tip: Adjective phrases often begin with prepositions.

Examples:

The students eager to learn asked many questions.

She wore a dress full of bright colors.

We visited a place famous for its white sand beaches.

Examples:

The book rich in historical details fascinated the readers.

Harold adopted a puppy covered with mud.

My friends and I visited a restaurant known for its spicy dishes.

Identify the adjective phrase in each sentence.

-
1. The winners proud of their achievements posed for a photo.
 2. We stayed in a resort famous for its white sand beaches.
 3. It's a sky full of stars.
 4. The speaker gave a message inspired by his childhood experiences.
 5. He is a person interested in helping communities.

Questions?

Thank you!

Presentation by:

Hazel Marie Rabano
College of Arts and Sciences
Our Lady of Fatima University

